

Little River Farms

Where learning is fun for everyone!

A stimulating educational experience for children and adults alike.

Just a few events offered include the petting farm, hay ride, nature trails, picnic by the river or covered pavilion, a "Corn Maze" and much much more. Also available, "The County Inn" presents a soothing getaway from everyday life.

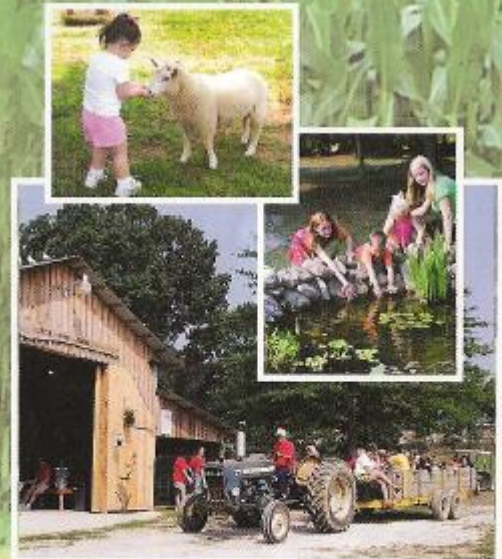

Terry and Marisa Poarch, Owners

Located in picturesque Northwest Georgia about one mile from I-75 off Exit 320 (Hwy. 136). Travel 136 East about 1.2 miles and look for the sign on the right.
 Phone 706-629-9688 Fax 706-625-8140
 Email: littleverfarms@bellsouth.net
 Website: www.littleverfarms.com

Terry & Marisa Poarch
 669 Nickelsville Road
 Hwy. 136
 P.O. Box 1141
 Resaca, GA 30735

Come Join The Fun!

Little River Farms

Located in a bend on the Conasauga River, only a mile or so from where it merges with the Coosawatee River to form the Oostauaula River, which runs through Resaca.

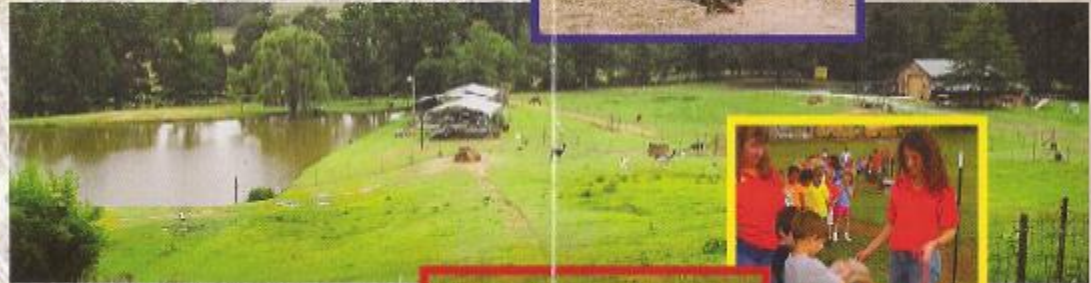

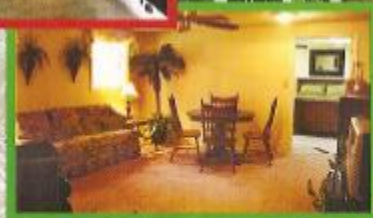

The Petting Farm

A wide variety of animals are always ready for up close and personal contact. All our critters, whether it be a goat, donkey, miniature horse, rabbit, birds, sheep, miniature pot-bellied pig, or various other critters, crave loving attention.

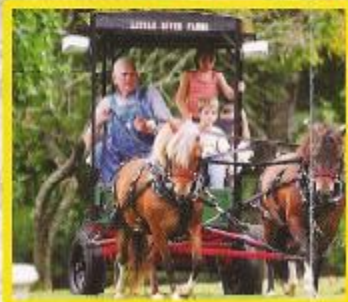

Country Inn

Immerse yourself in an ideal country experience suitable for family outings, school groups, church groups, birthday parties and even weddings

Little River Farms "Country Inn" offers large furnished bedroom suites, a full kitchen, cable TV and best of all a relaxing porch with a breathtaking view overlooking the farm. Reserve one, two or three bedroom suites for your own personal getaway, local family reunions, parties or business meetings.

Come Join The Fun!

Harness maker, Perk Welch, drives the pony team pulling the "Little Rivers Farm Wagon"

"Corn Maze" designers Brent Casey and Casey Chapman